

NEW – Unit 1 & Unit 3 – Accommodations

4.05.7 Where the Employer requires specific certification by a legally qualified medical practitioner for the purpose of assessing the Employee's request for workplace accommodation(s), the Employer shall determine the nature of the documentation required and the amount available for reimbursement.

Where an Employee has submitted medical documentation to Student Accessibility Services regarding a disability and gives written consent to Employee Well-Being, medical documentation may be requested from Student Accessibility Services by Employee Well-Being.

NEW – Unit 2 – Accommodations

4.05.6 Where the Employer requires specific certification by a legally qualified medical practitioner for the purpose of assessing the Employee's request for workplace accommodation(s), the Employer shall determine the nature of the documentation required and the amount available for reimbursement.